2. PPF and EPF accounts have limits of investment. You can deposit a maximum of ₹1.5 Lacs per annum in PPF and a maximum of 100% of your basic salary in EPF/VPF. So, SSY provides you with an additional opportunity to invest another 1.5 Lacs per annum
3. Investments in SSS align very well with taking care of your girl child's marriage and education related expenses. So, use it wisely and associate the investments with those specific goals.

The choice between Sukanya Samriddhi Account and PPF is a trade-off between more flexibility and higher returns. PPF offers more flexibility while Sukanya Samriddhi Account can potentially give higher returns. Investors with surpluses can look at the distributing their investments in both the schemes.

Gratuity

Are you rueing your decision not to change jobs, while your peers moved more than two or three times to jobs with higher salaries? However, patience is usually rewarding in financial terms. If you have completed at least five years of service, you are eligible for a lump-sum payment in the form of gratuity when you finally bid farewell to a company. Your former colleagues,who changed every two or three years for lucrative new offers, will not be eligible for the same benefit.
