

2. Bull Market: A market characterized by rising prices and optimism among investors.
3. Bear Market: A market characterized by falling prices and pessimism among investors.
4. Cash Flow Statement: A financial statement that provides details about a company's cash inflows and outflows from operating, investing, and financing activities.
5. Dividend: A portion of a company's profits distributed to shareholders.
6. Earnings Per Share (EPS): A company's net profit divided by its number of outstanding shares, indicating its profitability on a per-share basis.
7. Financial Ratios: Quantitative metrics used to evaluate a company's financial performance and health.
8. Gross Margin: The percentage difference between a company's revenue and its cost of goods sold, reflecting its profitability before operating expenses.
9. Income Statement: A financial statement that summarizes a company's revenues, expenses, and profits over a specific period.

10.

Leverage: The use of debt to finance operations or investments, potentially magnifying returns but also increasing risk.

11.

Market Capitalization (Market Cap): The total value of a company's outstanding shares, calculated by multiplying the share price by the number of shares.

12.

Net Income: A company's total revenue minus its total expenses.

13.