

The concepts you are about to learn are simple but profound. They make real changes for real people in the real world. How do I know? At my company, Peak Potentials Training, we get thousands of letters and e-mails each year telling us how each individual wealth file has transformed people's lives. If you learn them and use them, I am confident they will transform your life too.

At the end of each section you will find a declaration and a physical movement with which to “anchor” it into your body.

You will also find actions to take to support you in adopting this wealth file. It is imperative you put
