

Rich people do not back away from problems, do not avoid problems, and do not complain about problems. Rich people are financial warriors. In our Enlightened Warrior Training Camp, the definition of a warrior we use is “one who conquers oneself.”

The bottom line is that if you become a master at handling problems and overcoming any obstacle, what can stop you from success? The answer is nothing! And if nothing can stop you, you become unstoppable! And if you become unstoppable, what choices do you have in your life? The answer is all choices. If you are unstoppable, anything and
