

feeling and says, “Thank you for sharing; now let’s get refocused and back to work.”

Another example comes from one of my seminars in Orlando, Florida. As usual, people were filing up to the stage, one by one, to get an autograph and say hello or thank you or whatever. I’ll never forget one older gentleman because he came up sobbing. He could barely catch his breath and kept wiping his tears with his sleeve. I asked him what was wrong. He said, “I’m sixty-three years old and I’ve been reading books and going to seminars since they were invented. I’ve seen every speaker and tried everything they taught. I’ve tried
