

beliefs and habits around money. Some spend like crazy because “You could easily lose all your money, so you might as well enjoy it while you can.” Others go the opposite route: they hoard their money and “save for a rainy day.”

A word of wisdom: Saving for a rainy day might sound like a good idea, but it can create big problems. One of the principles we teach in another of our courses is the power of intention. If you are saving your money for a rainy day, what are you going to get? Rainy days! Stop doing that. Instead of saving for a rainy day, focus on saving for a joyous day or for the day you win your financial freedom. Then, by
