

- Price-earnings ratios (continued) impossibility of exact appraisal of, 501 speculative vs. investment common stocks and, 503–507
- Price-value discrepancies, 669–696
 bankruptcy and, 685–687
 in comparative prices, 691–692
 cyclical swings of prices and,
 exploiting, 670–672
 definitely related issues and, 693–695 market behavior of standard and nonstandard issues and, 677–679 market exaggerations and, 679–683 opportunities in “secondary” or little-known issues, 672–677
 price inertia of seasoned issues and,
 688–689
 price vulnerability of unseasoned issues and, 689–691
 supply and demand factors and,
 695–696
 undervaluation and, 683–685
- PricewaterhouseCoopers, 727
- Prime Motor Group, 737–742
- Principal, safety of, investment in high-grade bonds and preferred stocks
 and, 26–27
- Private business:
 common stock as share in, 341–342
- Private equity, 46–47
- Private investing, 733–744
 arbitrage opportunities in, 735–736 challenges in, 743–744
 management incentives in, 742–743
 margin of safety for, 733–735
- Prime Motor Group case study, 737–742
- Privileged issues, 267–290
 comparative merits of types of,
 282–290
 considerations generally applicable to,
 277–282
 at disadvantage, marketwise, 283–284 senior issues with speculative privileges, 267–276
 unlimited participation privilege and,
 282–283
- Procter and Gamble Company, 355, 552*n*
- Product price, future, earnings and,
 495–496
- Profits:
 financial position and, checking on,
 601–608
 future of, common-stock investment
 and, 33–34
 investing vs. speculating and, 106–107
 large, transitoriness of, 488–490
 on low-priced bonds, limitation on,
 301–302
 nonconsolidated, allowance for, in
 income account, 449–450
 from sale of fixed assets, in income account, 418–420
 from sale of marketable securities, in
 income account, 420–424
 through repurchase of senior securities at discount, 424–427
 undistributed, tax on, 376–378
- Property retirement, 472–473
- Property value:
 appraisals and, 197–199
 earning power related to, 196–197
- Prospectuses as information source, 99–100
- Protective covenants, 215–239
 bankruptcy and reorganization and, 218–223
 bondholders’ legal rights and,
 217–218
 equal-and-ratable security clauses, 229–230
 for investment-trust issues, 234–239
 prior lien prohibition and, 229–230 protective committee and, 227–228 safeguards against creation of additional amounts of bond issue, 231
 subordination of bond issues to bank debt in reorganization, 230 tendency to sell below fair value and,
 223–224
 voluntary readjustment plans and,
 224–226
 voting control, 233
 working-capital requirements, 232–233