

values, and make logical decisions—all essential capabilities for trading algorithms.