

- Adjust thresholds and parameters
- Add additional conditions as needed

?? Fun Fact: In 2019, a research team at a major investment bank analyzed the trading algorithms used across their various desks. They discovered that algorithms with clearer, more structured control flow (fewer nested conditions, well-organized loops) had 43% fewer runtime errors and were modified 2.5 times more frequently to adapt to changing market conditions.