

Traders ask this question when they have finalized one trading pattern, and they face difficulty identifying all the stocks that show this pattern among the extensive list of listed companies.

First, let us understand how trading in one pattern or one scrip can give powerful results.

The Power of One Scrip or Pattern

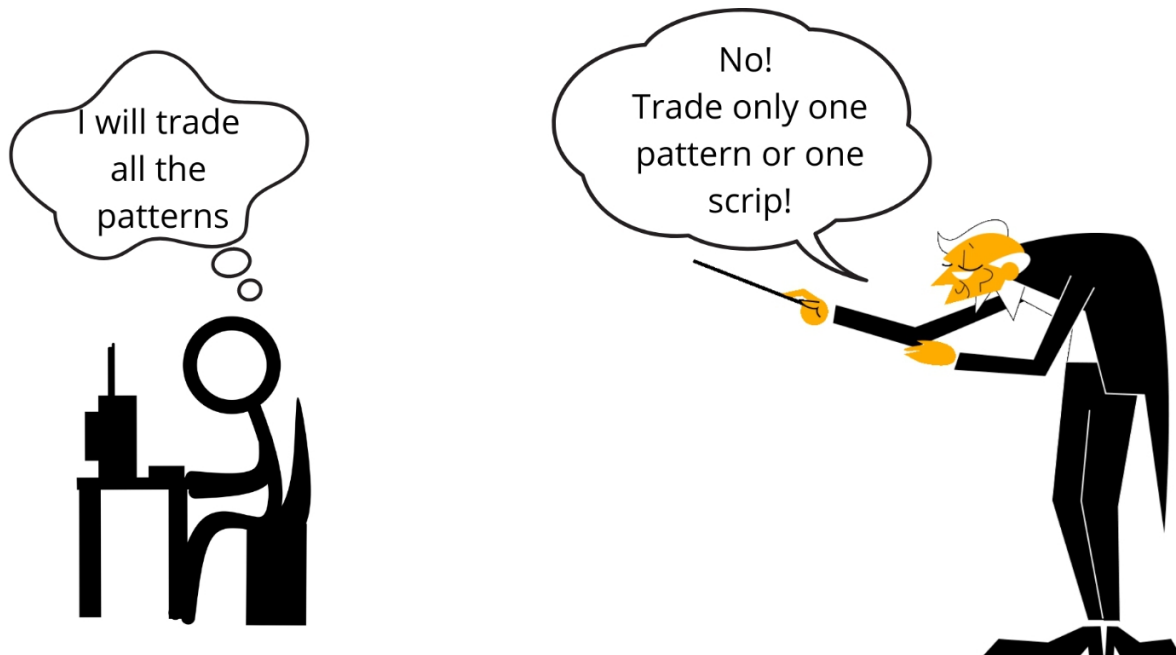

"All you need is one pattern to make a living." – Linda Raschke

"I fear not the man who has practiced 10,000 kicks once, but I fear the man who has practiced one kick 10,000 times." – Bruce Lee

These are two famous statements made by world-class trader Linda Raschke and #1 martial artist Bruce Lee.

But can you spot the similarity in both statements? Both the quotes talk about the power of one.

We need to ask a question to ourselves, "What is important to us in trading - making money or trading every pattern under the sun?"

Consciously we may pick the 'making money' option, but without much consciousness, our activity around trading doesn't support it because we like
