

CHAPTER 5

10 Powerful Intraday Trading Systems

According to many people, Intraday Trading is notorious for stealing your money. It is because traders start enjoying the game of beating the other players instead of focusing on P&L.

The difference between successful traders and other traders has little to do with skill. It has to do with perseverance. Average traders quit soon. Good traders keep going (with proper money management). That's all there is to it.

We are human beings, and it is natural to commit mistakes. When it comes to intraday trading, most of us are emotionally driven or aim to make millions overnight. Either way, most beginners start trading with full throttle only to lose their hard-earned money to the markets.

It is okay to commit mistakes initially, because you are not learning if you are not making mistakes. But repeating the same mistakes, again and again, is a cardinal sin in trading.

Hence, before we learn the intraday systems, let us study the 4 common mistakes committed by traders:
