

Remind them what they're like when they're 'hangry'. Explain that this week they're going to do something about it.

ENTRÉE:

Play the Family Legends game:

Do you know . . .

- when we needed to accept help from others?
- what we did to help others when we were kids?
- why we give to homeless people in the streets?

MAIN COURSE:

Explain the three options (see page):

1. Pantry giveaway: Search for food that's already in the pantry, and donate it.
2. Shopping spree: Go shopping with the contents of their Give Jar to buy their own food to donate.
3. Volunteering: Give some time to Foodbank, or volunteer within your local community.

Together with your kids, pick an age-appropriate activity to do.

DESSERT:

Do payday (three minutes is all it takes!).

Everyone pitches in and does the dishes.

Busted!

Congratulations on breaking the brat!
