

DESSERT:

Play the Family Legends game:

Do you know . . .

- how we got into debt in the first place?
- why we choose not to use credit cards anymore in our family?
- what we do in our family to avoid paying for things with credit?

Then, do payday (three minutes is all it takes!).

Everyone pitches in and does the dishes.

Blend it, baby!

I guarantee you, 30 years from now your kids will still remember the night their parents blended their credit card.

What you've done with your 'credit smoothie' is kind of like aversion therapy. Better yet, you can keep the credit card dust from the blender to throw in their eyes if they ever come home with a credit card.

Okay, so clean the blender, because your next Money Meal is going to be MEGA.

Seriously, I've been working on this chapter—undercover!—for months.
