

When's the best time of the year to apply?

‘McDonald’s hires all year round, but there is definitely an increase in hiring before the Christmas period. If you want to get in for Christmas, we suggest applying around August. We also open approximately 20 new restaurants per year, so, with each restaurant hiring over 100 new crew, there are some good job opportunities there. I encourage all teenagers to head online to apply. If you have the appetite for success and learning, we’ll bring the opportunity.’

Do you have any tips on acing the interview?

‘We have different jobs for different personalities. With our front-of-house staff, we’re looking for kids who are more extroverted. Yet if there’s someone on grill, they can be more introverted. Just be yourself.’

What’s the biggest misconception people have about Macca’s?

‘That we only want teenagers, and as they get older we move them on. That’s just not true. Most of our restaurants are essentially 24/7 businesses, and high school students are limited in the hours they can do. So there are definitely possibilities for people to continue working after they finish high school.’
