

When you get to retirement without enough savings, you often live your final days in fear.

Yet what you've helped your teen with tonight will mean they won't have regrets.

You should be really proud of yourself, and of them.

Tonight will have a ripple effect on their entire life, and will look after your family long after you're gone.

You did good tonight.

‘So my boss gave me your book . . .’

Jess Cleasby, Perth, WA