

Barefoot Ten, 15, 60–63
BHP, author given share in, 7–8
Blow bucket, 70, 71
Breakfast Clubs, 125
‘buckets’ for savings, 24–26
Buffett, Peter and Warren, 220–221
Bunnings, 247

C

car purchases, 231
children. see also teenagers; tweens; young people allowing to make mistakes, 92
 arriving at school hungry, 124–125
 Barefoot Ten goals for, 60–63 buying food for, 104–105
 cooking by, 112
 employment for, 31–33
 financial marketing to, 8, 66–68, 74 funding home deposits for, 219 importance of family meals, 45–49 leaving home with confidence, 250–251 participation in duties, 51 pocket money amounts, 39 promising never to get credit cards, 144 shopping for food to donate, 125–126 teaching ‘adulthood’ to, 88–89 training to turn off lights, 135–136 volunteer work by, 118
Choice, 135
chore charts, 31–32
Cleasby, Jess, on learning about money 215
Coles, employment at, 171
Commonwealth Bank
 credit card statement, 152 Dollarmites program, 66–68 compound interest, 200–202
credit, teaching children about, 151 credit cards
 removing dependence on, 144, 153–159 ‘reward’ points, 153–154
CUA Everyday Youth Account, 76

D

Date Nights, 17–18, 41–43
death, planning for, 242–244