

- financially savvy, 253
- meals made by, 48–49
- Pape, Scott (author)
 - about, vii
 - aged 18 months, 6
 - Famous Pasta, 107
 - first part-time job, 163–164
 - interviews ‘Jack’, 121–123
 - promise to reader, 4
- Pape family. see also author’s father
 - Christmas traditions, 44
- parents
 - control over own money, 92
 - driving children to work, 188–189
 - funding home deposits for children, 219
 - helping children find work, 178–179
 - helping other parents, 255
 - lessons in ‘adulting’ from, 88–89
 - matching child’s investment, 226
 - Money Meal script, 56–57
 - role in children’s employment, 165
 - single parenting, 93
- Parents Only Date Night, 41–43
- part-time work for teenagers, 34, 160
- ‘paydays’, shopping list for, 80
- personal loans, 156
- pester power, 85, 98
- ‘petrol price game’, 136–137
- pocket money
 - amounts to give, 39
 - arranging payment, 56–58
 - ‘payday’ at dinnertime, 51
 - for teenagers, 78
 - uses of, 19–22
 - withholding as employment incentive, 166–167
- power bills, reducing, 135–139
- Pratt, Steve, on kids and credit cards 159
- private education, paying for, 231
- punctuality, 190

R

- Raiz Kids, 212, 227
- recipes, 106–111
- references, earning, 184–185
- résumés, writing, 173–179