

Not you, not this time.

You now know which jobs they should do for pocket money, and which should be free.

You know how much to pay, and when. And you'll do it in just three minutes a week.

Now we're getting serious.

In Part II, we're going to nail some big life lessons for your kids:

- They're going to learn the value of a buck, so they don't end up spoiled, entitled brats.
- They're going to learn about the dangers of credit cards, and build up their confidence.
- They're going to develop the understanding that 'in our family, we're good with money'.

You've taken your First Steps, and life will never be the same.

Now it's time to pick up the pace . . . with the Barefoot Ten.

This is where the real fun starts!

'The best thing is that it feels like we're coming back together as a family'
