

We call the Money Meals ‘Pay Parties’ because doing it on a Sunday afternoon works best for our family. They do their jobs, we have yummy snacks and play card games together.

The best thing is that it feels like we’re coming back together as a family. To see that fills my heart with joy.