

told me that if I wanted to guarantee success I needed to follow their .system. I am sure you are familiar with it

:This is what success looks like

- .Study hard at school as it's important you get good grades (1)
- .Go on to university if you want to be paid well (2)
- .Get a good job for life (3)
- .If you buy a house, pay off the mortgage as quickly as possible (4)
- .Save as much as you can to store away safely in the bank (5)
- .The harder you work the more money you'll make (6)
- .Look forward to retirement because that's the good life (7)

:The truth is

- .Most people do not benefit from good grades (1)
- .Most people who finish university still struggle to get a job (2)
- .A good job for life does not exist (3)
- .Paying off the mortgage quickly is not smart (4)
- .Your money is shrinking in the bank (5)
- .Some of the poorest people are the hardest workers (6)
- If retirement is your motivation you will be extremely (7)
- .disappointed

These lies have become so accepted in our society but they will lead you to working 40 hours per week for 40 years to retire on 40 per cent of what you struggled to live on in the first place. And that's me being generous! I meet many people now working 50/60 hours per week at a job they hate, just to earn a living. Somebody once said that a job stood for Jump Out of Bed, on
