

many times do you need to buy the house to keep getting the rent? The .answer is just once, of course

As much as I love the big income you can make through property by buying and selling, capital growth and all kinds of clever ways, my favourite is the .income through rent because it is steady, painless and passive

The definition of 'financial freedom' is when your passive income is equal .to or greater than your living expenses

The definition of 'ultimate financial freedom' is when your passive income
.is equal to or greater than your desired lifestyle

I achieved financial freedom by the age of 21 not because I am super clever, but because it is actually pretty easy. I am now ultimately financially free
.but that has taken a little longer

My question to you is how much passive income do you need to become financially free? Write it down and ingrain that figure in your brain. By the
