

CHAPTER 5

Professional deal sourcing

?Where to buy

The first HMO that I ever rented out was in Bournville. I went on to buy my own house, also in Bournville

My plan was to keep buying there because I had been told that Bournville was the number one area in the country for HMOs

When I started investing in property and realised that HMOs were a great way to get extremely high returns, when it came to areas, I only really knew what my builder had told me and I considered him to be an expert in HMOs
