

HMOs that were excellent while three were just good. Dan wanted both of the two excellent properties but he definitely didn't have enough money to .buy both

,Dan said

I have a great idea, why don't we buy one as planned, but then buy the“
”?second one on a Lease Option Agreement

I explained to Dan that it wasn't that simple. We only had one day together and securing an LOA took a lot of work and only worked in certain situations anyway. Dan was determined to at least try and dared me to have a go. I was not very excited about the idea but agreed to give it an hour's .try

We went to the second property and knocked the door. I asked the owner if we could have a chat about their situation with a view to making an offer, which they agreed to. It turned out that they had recently inherited the property. There was no mortgage on the property and they were asking for £120,000. They didn't need the money but, of course, wanted to make as .much money as possible from the house

Dan looked at me. I could see he was eager for me to pitch an LOA and .secure it for him as a No Money Down Deal

I slowly began to ask them the three questions. They didn't want to be landlords, they were not prepared to take a BMV offer but they were happy to try to sell it with an estate agent. I told them I was prepared to make them an offer, which would result in us paying them £138,000 for the property. .They looked excited and asked me to explain

,I proposed

... I may be able to offer something like this“

We could buy the house from you for £120,000 which is what you are asking. However, we would need 36 months to pay you the money. In the
