

believed in me, despite my limitations as a broke 17-year-old, and quietly responded

”Keisha, you need to be there“

The following month I was preparing the training room and guess who .walked in? Keisha! With a big beaming smile and excited, expectant eyes We hugged before she explained to me her plans to help the needy with the .money she made from property after this programme

During the afternoon session on ‘No Money Down Deals’ we were practising Rent2Rents and LOA searching when her face lit up. She left the room to make a phone call. She later explained to the group that she lived in a 3-bedroomed house that had two reception rooms. She was renting the property for £700 per month, but she had the idea to ask the landlord if she could rent out the spare rooms in her house. I congratulated Keisha on her creativity and we all agreed that if she had the space and was happy to live
.with housemates it was a great idea to get some extra cash flow

Within one month she had received permission and moved three people into her property. This was enabling her to live rent- and bills-free while saving
!up for her next creative deal

What Keisha achieved was not complicated and many would say not a big deal. But for Keisha this was life changing and almost replaced her full-time income as a nurse. The lesson here is to not overcomplicate things and
.get creative

Deals are everywhere

I regularly get asked to coach professional football players because they are earning a very high wage but aware that it will be short lived so they need
