

to invest well. In order to protect their identities I cannot name names but I .will tell you about one player, whom we will call Liam

Liam phoned me and told me he wanted to buy some HMOs to build up a passive income for when he finished his football career. He received some training and bought four HMOs which was enough to generate him a good income for when he finished. However, Liam was fascinated with the idea of finding a Lease Option Deal. He thought it would be a good challenge and wanted to put my strategies to the test as it sounded a little too good to .be true

Liam was very busy with his football career so didn't have time to go networking nor the inclination to start advertising or looking for a joint ,venture partner. Instead, we drafted a short letter which said

,Dear Home Owner“

.I am interested in buying your house

My name is Liam and I I have been wanting to buy an investment property in this street for some time and happened to notice you were selling. My ideal set-up would be a ‘rent to buy’ type scheme which would ultimately