

- balloon analogy, 120–21
- chaos/examples and, 120
- complexity bias, 119–20
- consequences, 120, 121
- as default, 119
- marketers and, 120
- in problem solving, 118–19

Consumer Expenditure Survey (CE), Bureau of Labor Statistics, 103

consumerism

- anxiety/depression and, 21
- statistics on, 21

Consumers' Checkbook, 99

“consumption”/“consumerism” term beginnings, 71

consumption/overconsumption

- economy and, 172–73
- long-term costs, 174

contentment

- comparisons and, 156, 158
- definition/description, 153, 155
- dissatisfaction vs., 156–57, 158
- distorted perceptions and, 155–56
- focus and, 157–58
- hustle culture vs., 154
- internal environment and, 153
- personal work and, 160
- radical middle and, 154–55, 168–69
- RV lifestyle and, 153
- RV living (Jill), 161
- social justice causes and (Jill), 157–58
- without complacency, 154–55, 161, 165
- See also* gratitude; specific components

corporate profits and inflation, 173

cortisol, 120, 177

Costco, 100

Cowdrick, Edward, 71

curiosity

- assumptions and, 34–35
- barriers to, 37–41
- children vs. adults, 34
- debt example/money knowledge and, 38–39
- inventory, 90-day transactions and, 53
- Jill's nieces/nephews, 33, 34, 35
- judgment towards self and, 35–37
- personality assessments and, 39–40
- practicing, 40–41
- self-reflection and, 37–38, 39–40
- values-based spending and, 52, 65
- See also* cognitive distortions

curiosity habit

- burnout cause/remedy (Jill), 41–43