

- overview, 95–98
- perfection and, 95–96
- radical middle and, 96

impulse spending, stress spending

- control and, 93
- distraction and, 93
- example (Brittany), 94
- overcoming/suggested activities, 93–95
- overview/issues, 92–95
- renovation time example (Jen), 84

impulse spending, the hunt/deal

- deceptive sales marketing, 98–100
- overview, 98–100

income

- extra income/wrongful death payout example, 54–55, 139
- happiness/income amounts survey, 155–56
- happiness/income amounts survey by generation, 162–63
- income example (Jill), 28
- increasing and, 50–51
- lack of values knowledge and, 54–56
- pushes to spend and, 55–56
- See also* money

Industrial Revolution, 70

inflation and corporate profits, 173

influencers

- housing and, 106
- life issues and, 62
- problems with, 40, 62

International Energy Agency, 175

internet scams, 148–49

inventory, 90-day transactions

- changing spending habits and, 52–54, 86–87
- curiosity and, 53
- Frugal Friends website and, 65
- Frugal Friends* website/podcast resources, 53, 65, 100
- habit spending, 86–87
- no-spend challenge and, 82
- process description, 52, 53–54
- questions to ask, 53
- reason for 90 days, 52
- things you value, 59
- what matters least, 58–59

investing

- employer-sponsored plans, 167
- Frugal Friends* website/podcast resources, 166–67
- investing literacy example (Jill), 165–66
- investment fees, 167–68
- IRAs, 167
- self-employed and, 167
- wealth and, 166