
Enjoy your career and then move on (chapter 2)

No matter where you are on your personal career path, you'll want to:

Look for meaning in yourself, not in your job (chapter 2)

Take the two-year test (chapter 6)

At some point you'll take the two-year test and see retirement in your future. That's when you:

Talk to others (chapter 6)

Talk to your spouse to make sure he or she wants to retire with you. Talk to your friends and consider what they say, but:

Don't expect a little help from your friends (chapter 6)

When retirement day comes:

Manage the change (chapter 6)

During the first months of transition, managing the change means you:

Fill your new days with old activities (chapter 6)

After a transition period, do what you want with your new retired life. The rule is:

Do what you wish, but you must do something (chapter 3)

To get started:

Make a to-do list (chapter 3)
