

Action Step

1. Vividly describe what your ideal day, week, and month would look like if money were not a concern. Do you desire a traditional retirement with no work at age sixty or seventy? Would you like to retire sooner? Do you want to retire at all? If your current path is not taking you to your desired destination, determine what actions you need to take to start designing the life you want.