

change your lifestyle until your income levels rise. If you listen to all of this advice now, believe me, your thirties will thank you.

My college roommates and me in 1974. We packed five people into this two-bedroom dump to minimize costs and try to stay out of debt!

(Property of Kevin O'Leary)

Money Mistake: You Think Postsecondary Education Is the Only Option

THE FIX: THINK OUTSIDE THE CUBICLE

It's drilled into our heads when we're young: You have to go to college to get a good job. Without a college education, you're going to live at home for the rest of your life. It's not true! Don't fall into the trap of thinking you have to be a tycoon, banker, lawyer, dentist, or doctor to have money. You might need a college degree for those jobs. And if a career like that is your dream, pursue it, by all means. But not