

protests this inconvenience. Again, do it, cheerfully and respectfully, and mark off another day on the calendar.

Step 10: If none of the above suggestions are helping, consider that you may have to move. Your future downsizing plans will have to start sooner rather than later, and you need to put your financial well-being first. This isn't such a bad idea if the boomerang bird in question is the last to leave the nest. But if there are other young ones to consider, this is a difficult step to take. Depending on how adamant you are about getting your son or daughter to make this big step, this might be your last option.
