

ON SPENDING

1. At any given time, do you know exactly how much money is in your wallet, your checking/investments/savings accounts? Y/N
2. Do you go shopping with a specific list, buying only what's on it with rare exceptions? Y/N
3. Do you refrain from putting consumer goods or groceries on a credit card, paying only in cash or with debit card unless absolutely necessary? Y/N
4. Do you resist last-minute purchases (such as magazines, chocolate bars, or gum) in the checkout aisle? Y/N
5. Do you research prices and comparatively shop before you hit the stores? Y/N
6. Do you skip or block the shopping channel at home to prevent making unnecessary purchases from your couch? Y/N
7. Do you pay off your credit cards at the end of the month, using them only for convenience or to gather reward points? Y/N
8. Do you keep your receipts carefully filed and promptly return items if you're less than satisfied with them or find you don't need them? Y/N
9. Are you aware of all available discounts, rebates, and coupons before making any purchases? Y/N
10. Are you able to avoid shopping when you're stressed, bored, worried, or tired? Y/N

ON SAVING

1. Do you set aside a certain amount every month for savings, never veering from these commitments unless it's an emergency? Y/N
2. Do you save money in the highest-interest savings account you can find? Y/N
3. Do you keep minimum balances to avoid paying bank fees? Y/N
4. Do you understand how much you're paying in banking fees? Y/N