

If you've answered roughly half yes, half no, then these pages offer valuable advice to help you tip the scales back in favor of financial health.

If you answered no to most of these questions, then you are heading for financial trouble. But it's not too late to change; in fact, when it comes to money, it's never too late to change. Keep reading.