

Managing Consultant Performance and Productivity

Clear Expectations and Objectives

Establish clear expectations, responsibilities, and deliverables for the consultants, aligning them with the client's goals and project requirements.

Performance Monitoring and Feedback

Implement a robust performance monitoring and feedback mechanism involving the consulting firm and the client. Regular check-ins, progress reviews, and constructive feedback help identify areas for improvement and address any concerns promptly.

