

Favourites

Recently

- Overview
- Projects

Dashboards

- Default
- > eCommerce
- > Projects
- > Online Courses
- > User Profile

Overview

Projects

Campaigns

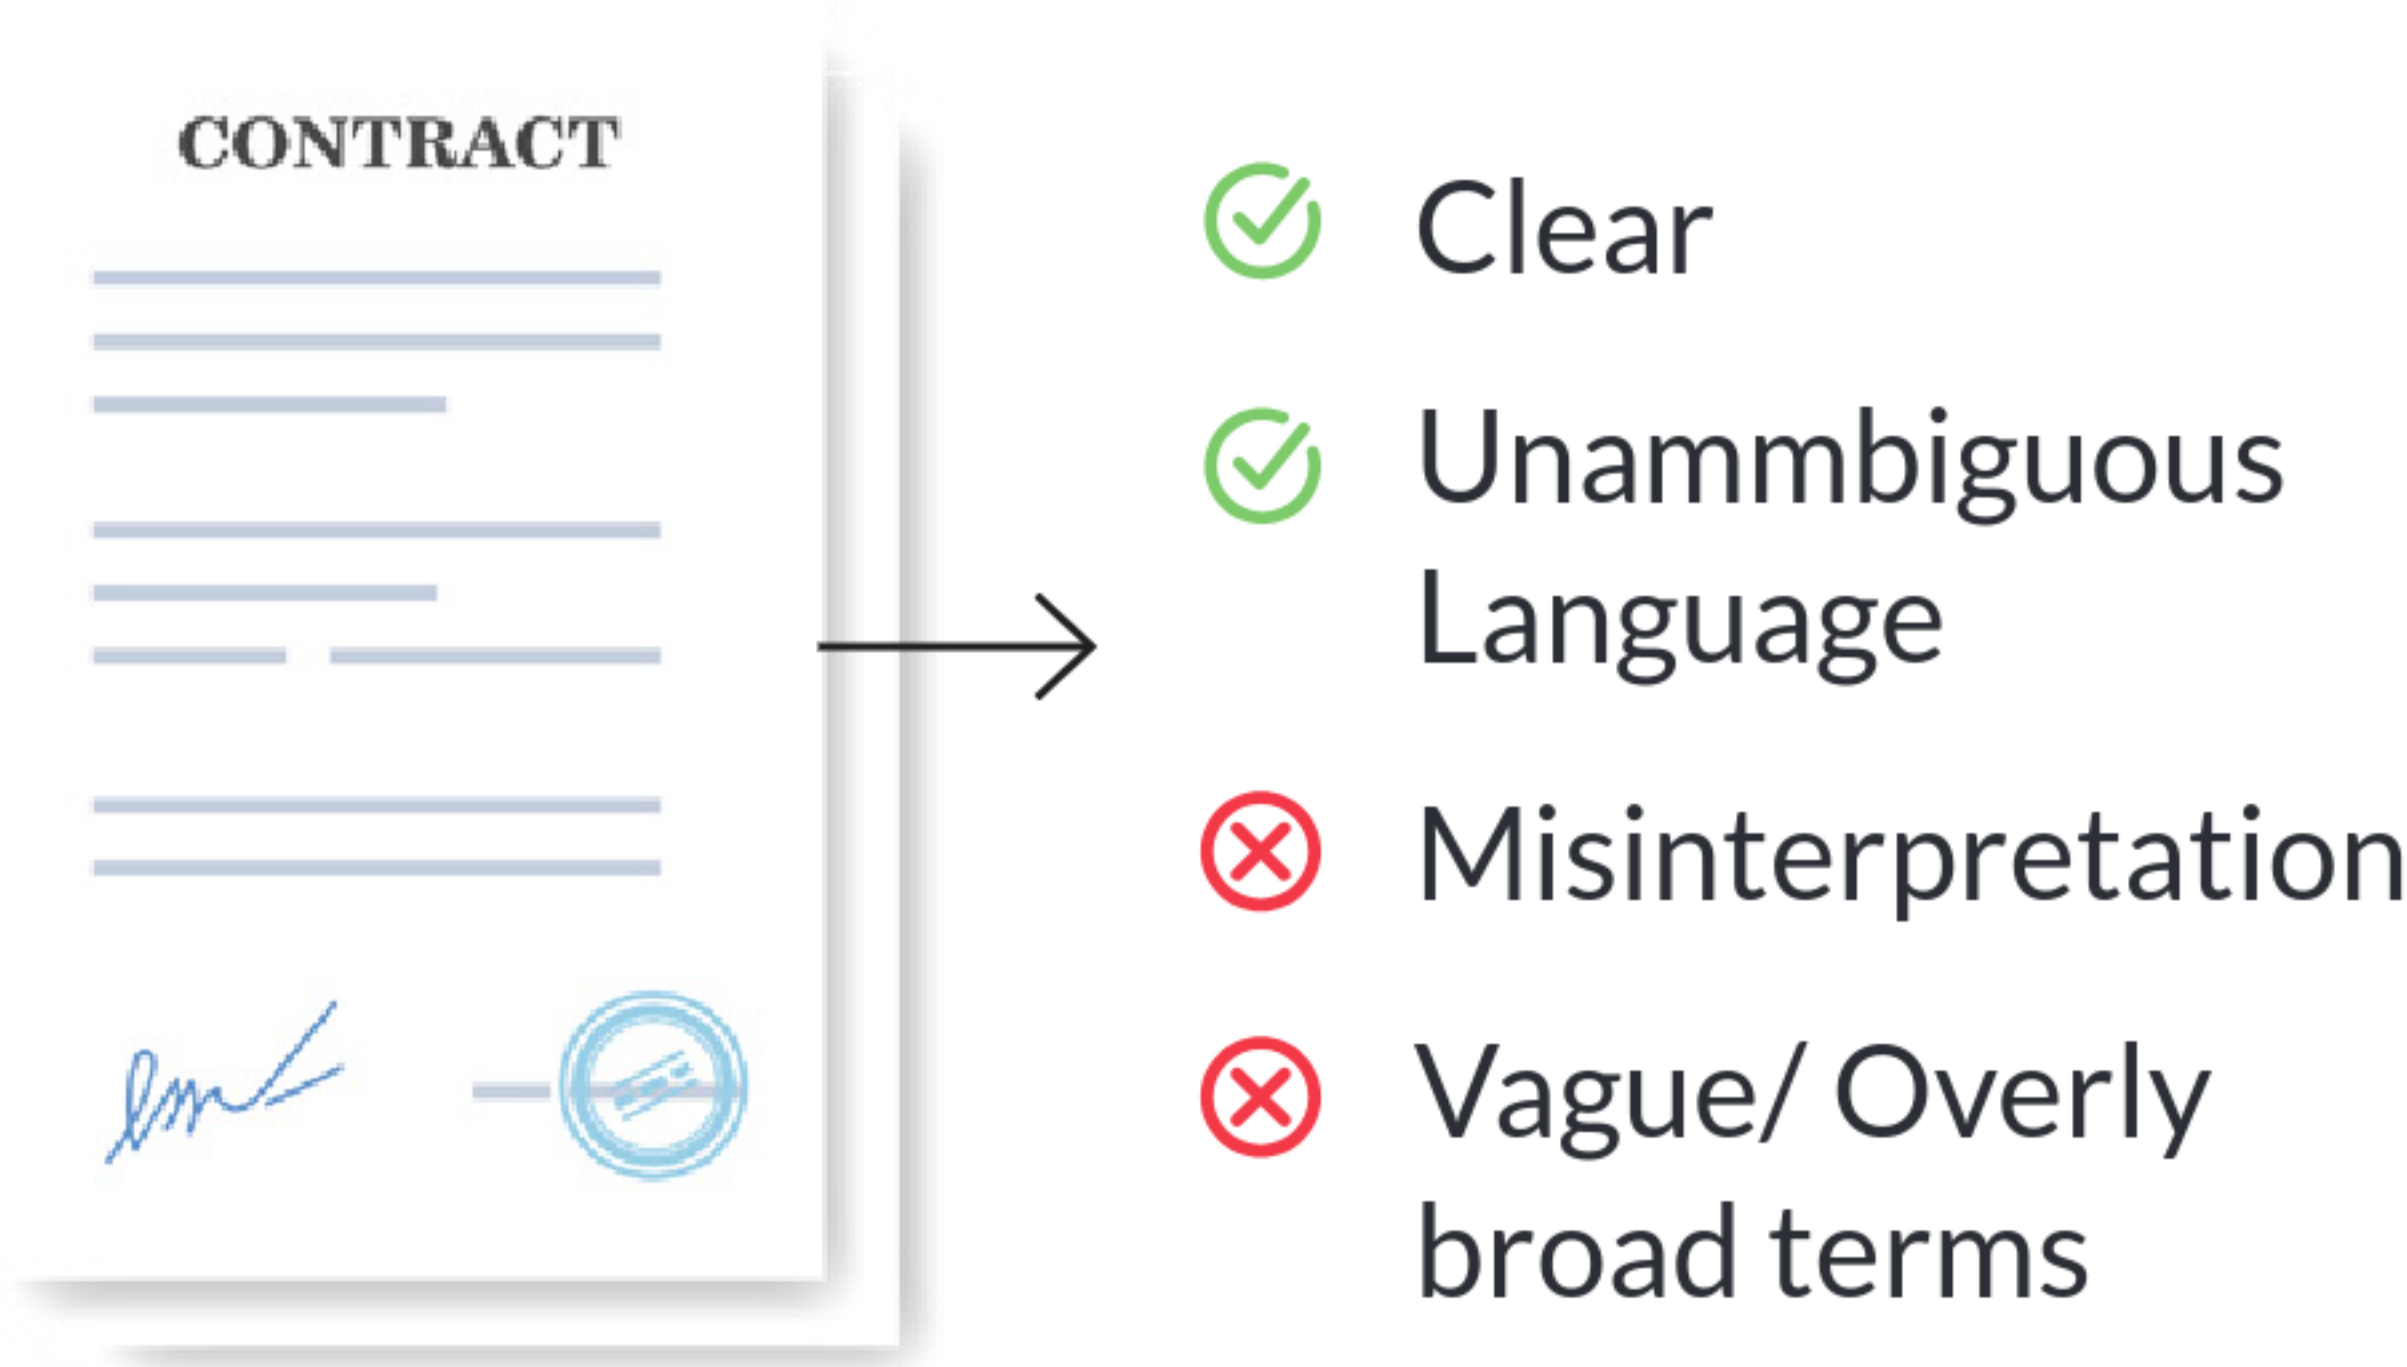

Documents

Followers
- > Accounts
- > Corporate
- > Blog
- > Social

Key Considerations When Drafting a Consulting Contract

Clarity and specificity

Contracts should be written in clear, unambiguous language, leaving no room for misinterpretation. Avoid vague or overly broad terms, and be specific about the scope of work, deliverables, timelines, and expectations.

Confidentiality and data protection

Ensure appropriate confidentiality and data protection clauses are included, mainly for engagements involving sensitive client information or proprietary methodologies.

