

Opportunities and Threats (External Factors)

Opportunities are external factors that present growth, expansion, or improvement potential. These include emerging market trends, regulation changes that create new demand for your services, or the potential to form strategic partnerships or alliances.

Example: Strategic Partnership

Starbucks

Pepsi

BAYA
ENERGY
RTO Coffee
Beverages

Threats, conversely, are external factors that pose risks or challenges to your consulting firm. Examples include increased competition, economic downturns, changes in client preferences, or disruptive technologies that could render your services obsolete.

RISK MATRIX FOR BUSINESS THREAT

Insignificant	0	0	0	0	0
Minor	0	0	0	0	0
Imapct Moderate	0	0	Increased Competition	0	0
Major	0	0	Disruptive Technology	Changes in client preferences	0
Catastrophic	0	Economic Downturn	0	0	0
	Rare	Unlikely	Possible Likelihood	Likely	Almost Certain

By conducting a thorough SWOT analysis, you will understand your firm’s internal strengths and weaknesses and the external opportunities and threats that may impact your business. This knowledge will inform your strategic decision-making and help you develop strategies to capitalise on your strengths, mitigate weaknesses, seize opportunities, and address potential threats.