

Oracle ERP Implementation at Starbucks

The global coffee chain has embraced Oracle’s ERP solution to automate its back-office processes and enhance day-to-day business activities. Oracle’s cloud-based ERP system has proven to be a valuable asset for Starbucks, enabling the company to centralise its operations and gain valuable insights through advanced analytics.

Oracle ERP’s Comprehensive Capabilities

Oracle’s ERP system offers a comprehensive suite of features designed to support various aspects of business operations, including:

Financial management

Human capital management

Procurement

Customer relationship management (CRM)

Project management

Analytics and business intelligence

Risk management and compliance

Asset management

Supply chain management

Order management

Enterprise performance management

Manufacturing management