

Sparking Creative Genius

Behavioural Dos

- ☐ Generates unique and innovative ideas
- ☐ Connects seemingly unrelated concepts
- ☐ Seen as a valuable contributor in brainstorming sessions
- ☐ Encourages creativity in others
- ☐ Open to taking calculated risks for creative solutions
- ☐ Explores new methods and approaches regularly
- ☐ Open-minded when evaluating new ideas
- ☐ Stays current with trends and innovations in the field
- ☐ Reflects before acting on the thought process

Behavioural Don'ts

- ☐ Narrow, tactical, and risk-averse
- ☐ Prefers traditional, safe approaches
- ☐ Lacks creativity or the ability to inspire it in others
- ☐ Follows a one-solution-for-all approach

Customer Whisperer: Winning Hearts

Behavioural Dos

- ☐ Dedicated to meeting customer expectations
- ☐ Uses customer feedback to improve products/services
- ☐ Acts with the customer's needs in mind
- ☐ Builds strong, trusting relationships with customers
- ☐ Communicates openly and transparently with customers
- ☐ Does not get sucked into client politics

Behavioural Don'ts

- ☐ Ignores or dismisses customer complaints (it is important to listen; may not act upon it)
- ☐ Prioritises internal processes over customer needs
- ☐ Fails to communicate effectively with customers
- ☐ Only reacts to customer issues instead of anticipating needs
- ☐ Sees customers as transactional rather than relational
- ☐ Lacks follow-through on promises made to customers
- ☐ Does not invest time in understanding customer expectations