

Trust: The Ultimate Superpower

Behavioural Dos

☐ Widely trusted by colleagues and clients

☐ Speaks the truth in a helpful and appropriate manner

☐ Keeps confidences and admits mistakes

☐ Follows through on promises

☐ Acts consistently and reliably

☐ Demonstrates honesty in all interactions

☐ Maintains high ethical standards in decision-making

☐ Puts the team's or client's interests ahead of personal gain

☐ Is an authority in his/her field

Behavioural Don'ts

☐ Seen as untrustworthy or inconsistent

☐ Breaks confidences or makes promises they can't keep

☐ Blames others for personal mistakes

People Person Extraordinaire

Behavioural Dos

☐ Relates well to a wide variety of people (though not a people pleaser)

☐ Builds strong, effective relationships

☐ Uses tact and diplomacy in high-tension situations

☐ Demonstrates empathy and understanding in interactions

☐ Communicates openly and listens actively

☐ Diffuses conflict with grace and professionalism

☐ Adapts communication style to different audiences

☐ Establishes rapport quickly with new contacts

☐ Well read and abreast of things happening around to make a connect

Behavioural Don'ts

☐ Struggles to build rapport with others

☐ May come off as overly intense, work-oriented, or impatient

☐ Fails to defuse tense situations, contributing to conflict