
I grew up in the projects and went to public school and a state college with no student loans. I believe we, within reason, are the master of our own fates. We believe we are blessed because of our giving and hard work.

—Chuck, $1.1 million net worth
