

to invest even more above the federal limit. The catch-up max for 2018 is $6,000, but again, it changes all the time. Talk to your investment professional or your company's 401(k) representative to get the current guidelines.