

Figure 13.3 This descending broadening wedge is a consolidation pattern in a...

Figure 13.4 This wedge is a failure according to the 5% rule. Price fails to...

Figure 13.5 As described in the Sample Trade, Mary used the wedge's height p...

Chapter 14

Figure 14.1 Upward momentum propels price higher during late 1993, then stal...

Figure 14.2 Shown are various components of a bump-and-run reversal bottom. ...

Figure 14.3 The bump height is less than twice the lead-in height, a clue th...

Figure 14.4 Consider waiting to buy the stock until after it breaks out upwa...

Figure 14.5 This is a bump-and-run reversal that stopped rising within 15% o...

Figure 14.6 This BARR bottom trade didn't work as expected.

Figure 14.7 A bump-and-run reversal bottom failure in which John invested. H...

Figure 14.8 A bump-and-run reversal bottom on a weekly scale. After the brea...

Chapter 15

Figure 15.1 Price moved higher along the trendline in the lead-in phase, jum...

Figure 15.2 A bump-and-run reversal shown on a weekly chart. The potential B...

Figure 15.3 A bump-and-run reversal with a rounded bump occurs 76% of the ti...