

Figure 18.5 An ugly double bottom provides a buy signal.

Chapter 19

Figure 19.1 This bearish crab sees price tumble after D.

Figure 19.2 This well-behaved crab has a downward breakout.

Figure 19.3 This bearish crab fails to see price drop far after turn D.

Figure 19.4 Sandy ignored the bearish crab and used a pennant to trade this ...

Chapter 20

Figure 20.1 This bullish crab forms an extended V-bottom at turn D.

Figure 20.2 This bullish crab shows a sustained uptrend after an upward brea...

Figure 20.3 This bullish crab breaks out downward after climbing just 2% abo...

Figure 20.4 Sam spotted this bullish crab but shorted the stock.

Chapter 21

Figure 21.1 A bump-and-run reversal leads to a cup-with-handle formation. No...

Figure 21.2 A cup-with-handle pattern flanked by other cup-with-handle patte...

Figure 21.3 A cup-with-handle pattern on a weekly scale. The failure at 10% ...

Figure 21.4 Shown is a 5% failure of a cup-with-handle pattern. Although pri...

Figure 21.5 Here is an example of the measure rule in practice on the weekly...

Chapter 22