

Figure 47.2 A falling wedge marks the corrective phase in this measured move...

Figure 47.3 A measured move up that fails after turning into a double top.

Figure 47.4 Measured move up with a symmetrical triangle. As described in th...

Chapter 48

Figure 48.1 A pennant bounded by two converging trendlines looks like a shor...

Figure 48.2 A short pennant forms after a quick price rise. The pennant slop...

Figure 48.3 The downward price trend overshoots the small pennant on entry. ...

Figure 48.4 This pennant looks like a small symmetrical triangle. Price brea...

Figure 48.5 Here's a quick way to lose money trading a pennant.

Figure 48.6 Use the measure rule to predict a price target. Take the differe...

Chapter 49

Figure 49.1 A pipe bottom on the weekly chart. Pipes commonly form after a r...

Figure 49.2 A pipe bottom on the weekly chart. Point A is another pipe botto...

Figure 49.3 Pipe bottom failures \(weekly chart\). Clues to these two pipe fai...

Figure 49.4 Pipe bottom with preceding brief price dip and following low ret...

Chapter 50

Figure 50.1 The pipe on the left is not a pipe at all because price does not...