

Debts That Can't Be Forgiven or Discharged

Some debts may not be dischargeable in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy if a creditor challenges them. These include:

- Debts you incurred by fraud, such as those obtained with false information on a credit application
- Credit purchases over a certain amount in the sixty days prior to filing
- Loans or cash advances over a certain amount in the months prior to filing
- Debts you owe under a divorce settlement or decree, with certain exceptions

Chapter 7 bankruptcy stays in your credit history for ten years. During that period, you may be denied credit.
