

proactive than to make late payments or default on your loans. Call your lender at the first indication that you may have trouble making payments.