

Do you need to hire an accountant or payroll service or will you do this yourself?

ESSENTIAL

You will likely have to set up a double-entry bookkeeping system. Talk to an accountant if you don't know how. The easiest way to do your accounting is to buy an inexpensive but robust program such as QuickBooks or Peachtree, which can more than adequately handle the accounting for most small or midsize businesses.
