

how much house you can really afford, you can avoid being house poor—unable to afford anything but the house payment.