

CHAPTER 2

Guilt-Free Budgeting

Part of meeting your goals is being able to create a budget and stick to it. Budgeting consists of setting up spending categories, tracking your expenditures, monitoring your progress, making adjustments, plugging spending leaks, and staying motivated. Your chances of being financially successful without budgeting are slim. It takes time and effort, but the rewards are tremendous.