

CHAPTER 19

Insurance and Estate Planning

The purpose of insurance is to protect your assets against catastrophic losses that could damage your financial future. Whether the asset is a house, a car, or your income-earning ability, insurance protects you from financial disaster. Decide how much risk you can assume and insure the rest.